PREFACE.

The portion of the Gargrave Register printed in this volume is contained in seven books :—

A. has 60 parchment leaves ($11\frac{3}{4} \times 9\frac{1}{2}$) and is concerned with the period 1558–1674.

B. has 92 parchment leaves ($14\frac{3}{4} \times 5\frac{1}{2}$) and carries the record to 1750.

C. has 37 parchment leaves (14×11) and contains the Marriages from 1751 to 1753 and the Christenings and Burials from 1751 to 1796.

The remaining four books are of paper with the usual printed forms, and carry on, D. and E. the Marriages from 1754, F. the Christenings and G. the Burials from 1796 to the end of 1812.

Among the fly leaves of A. there is inserted a paper with the following note :—

I hereby Certify that I counted the leaves of an Old Register belonging to the Parish Church of Gargrave and found that it consisted of 26 loose leaves and 24 other leaves fastened loosely together. I also counted the leaves of another register book having neither back nor sides, but the leaves, 92 in number, were loosely fastened together; this book begun on its first page with the Baptism of "Roger son of W^m & Mary Waddilove 29th April 1675, and ended with the burial of a still born Child of John & Catherine Robinson of Coniston 1750. In addition to this there were 2 Blank pages & 3 other pages containing sundry entries ending with the words "for damage inside only. W^m Willnson." I also saw these two Register Books properly packed up in Brown paper, fastened with string and sealed and directed to Mr. Thomas Harrison 55 Briggate Leeds, this fifth day of July, 1855, for the purpose of being properly arranged and bound in order that they might be put in a proper state and be preserved from injury.

Josh Mason.

In accordance no doubt with these directions the books A. and B. have been very fairly bound, but as regards A., the arrangement of the contents has been unfortunate. The sequence of things at present is as follows :—

Chr. 1558-65, 1568-70, 1616-9; Bur. 1575-7, 1582-5, 1599-1624; Chr. 1626-38, 1647-52, 1639; Bur. 1558-62; Mar. 1558-1605; Bur. 1624-32; Mar. 1633-7; Various Memoranda; Bur. 1633-6; Mar. 1641-9; Bur. 1645-8; Various Memoranda; Chr. 1668-75; Mar. 1653-74; Bur. 1636-44; Mar. 1638-41; Bur. 1663-8; Chr. 1668, 1665-68; Bur. 1668-73, 1653-7; Chr. 1657-60; Bur. 1658-62; Chr. 1653-56, 1661-63; Bur. 1673, 1674.

The confusion is so complete that it has been thought well in the printed copy of this section to put things as they ought to be in the MS. and not as they are. The references to the leaves make easy a comparison with the original. In the other portions the order of the original has been strictly followed, and throughout the book the copy is a literal transcript except that in the period when entries were made on printed forms an economy has been practised in the case of words which constantly recur.

It will be noticed that there are unfortunately not a few gaps in the earlier portion of these records. There are no entries of Christenings in the years 1566-7, 1571-1615, 1620-5, 1640-6, 1644; of Marriages in the years 1606-32, 1643-4, 1647, 1650-2, 1654-62, 1669-71; of Burials in the years 1563-74, 1578-82, 1586-98, 1649-52.

The writer of this notice has been asked to state for the benefit of American subscribers that Gargrave is a village distant four miles from the town of Skipton-in-Craven to the north-west.

[A fol. 1

[The larger part of the first leaf has been torn off. It has contained: recto, a memorandum of a sale of an organ, or at any rate some of the pipes, to Mr. John Bai . . . , and of money paid to the Churchwardens, the Christian name of one of them being Henry; verso, the title of the Book, of which only a word or two are left, and from which it is only possible to extract one statement, viz., that it was begun primo Elizabeth.—Ed.]

September the 8th 1737

[B fol. 91 v'

Francis Yates Clerk Batchelor of Laws was this day Inducted to y^e Vicarage of Gargrave in the presence of Henry Marsden Esquire Patron of the said Vicarage who most generously presented him to the same

Mem' That wⁿ I Frⁿ Yates LLB was inducted to the Vicarage of Gargrave that then the Vicarage House was but the bare shell of a House; the Slate being without either Moss or Lime, the Leads in the Windows so decayd that every shower came in at the roof & thro' the Windows & stood in Dubs both above & below Stairs; No Shuts to any of the Windows, No p^t of cieling below underdrawn, no rough Cast on y^e Walls: So y^t in my first Year I have laid out upon the Vicarage house upwards of forty pounds. My Predecessor M^r Dodgson had 130¹¹ pounds Dilapidacon's but I receiv'd not one shill^s from his Widow. The planting out of Trees & Quickwood in priestholm & Orrah has also cost me above 40 shill. and if it please God to bless me & continue my life, I shall continue to do every Year more & more for this Vicarage.

Frⁿ Yates

Decemb^r 1738 Planted a Row of Trees $\frac{1}{2}$ Firrs $\frac{1}{2}$ Limes in y^e front of the Vicarage House. Planted y^e same Year in proper Season 3 Beds of y^e choisest Asparagus & made y^e Walk on y^e East end & Grass walk on the South Side of the Garden. N.B. There is a Book left by worthy Predecessor in w^{ch} is an acc^t of the Trees planted by him & me

Frⁿ Yates

Augst 1742 Built a New Brewhouse and Converted the old one (w^{ch} sadly incom'oded y^e House wth smoak & steam) into a decent & convenient Back Kitchen charge above 15 pound Frⁿ Yates

[B fol. 92 r.

Memord' That I Christopher Lawson Batchelor in Inducted the Vicarage of Gargrave Anno Dominj Jesu Ch. 11th day 1673; that then the Vicarage dwelling house of Gargrave was extremely ruinous, walls faln, Timber much . . . stoln, slate removed & vsed to a Barn in building vpon Winterburn Hills (w^{ch} Slate was but a smal quantity) that then also, the Act of Pardon 25 Char: cap: 5 did protect these injuries so powerfully that I could not recover any thing of my immediate Predecessor in this Vicarage M^r Edmund Garforth, towards amendment of these Dilapidations; that therefore I the said M^r Christopher Lawson induced by my mere charity emploied Roger Smith of Gargrave Carpenter & his Servants Thomas Robinson of Flasby Moor Side Mason & his Servants to rebuild this vicarage dwelling house about the year of o^r Lord 1678 at my alone costs & charges. If my money then had been more plentiful, this dwelling house (tho good) had been a better building. Remember me, O my God in goodnes, according to all that I have done for this people 5 Nehemiah 19 ver.

Altered the Front next the Street, pulled down a Swine Cote Hen house & Necessary house next the Towngate very incom'odiously placed. Built a Necessary house in the Garden, a large & convenient Coal House two Swine Cotes & inclosed a Yard for y^m & the Poultry: Made a com'odious way to the Back Kitchen & propose to have a decent next the North end of the Barn leading to ... Front of the House. July y^e 20th 1743 New boarded the great Parlour wth Firdeal. This wth y^e pavem^{nt} & buildings above cost upwards of 11 pounds. Feby 1743 The Gate Porta humilitates for I c^d have made it a great deal more grand for a very little more expence was finish'd. Mason's bill 3¹¹ 6^s 0^d Joyners besides meat 1¹¹ 1^s. Deals By y^d 14^s. In cash p^d 6¹¹ 8^s 0^d. Who can stand before envy? Frⁿ Yates
